

Assistant Café Manager

We are looking for an Assistant Café Manager to join our team in February 2022.

A champion of service, smiles & making everyone feel welcome.

Quick with the hands when it comes to serving customers, slinging coffee & washing dishes.

One who can laugh in the face of hot coffee spills.

Does not shy away from greeting & talking to strangers/customers.

Who leaps tall counters to restock the sugar.

In addition to our regular Café Ninja/Barista skills as outlined above, our new café manager will,

- Co-ordinate menu and features with our kitchen manager
- Be knowledgeable in all retail and coffee product we offer
- Oversee proper cleaning and procedures are being followed
- Daily social media updates
- Keep inventory and prepare product orders as needed
- Training new employees as required
- Maintain the standard and quality of services provided
- Complete cash outs and prepare bank deposits
- Ensure smooth overall operations of café

Position schedule will be mostly 4-5 days a week including some Saturdays.

Training will begin in February with a quick transition into regular scheduling.

The perfect candidate must be flexible, willing to learn, ready to work in a fast paced environment and most importantly fun!

Experience in a commercial food establishment and current food safe certification are an asset but not required.

If this sounds like a great fit for you and you are ready to be part of a fun team, send us your resume and cover letter outlining any previous management experience. No management experience? Tell us why you think you would rock this job!

We look forward to reading your cover letter and resume soon!

Email a copy of your resume to us or stop by the cafe (5033 50St) & talk to us today!
